DONNA BURGESS

With the colors of a coastal sunset, her palette, the white sands and emerald waters her playground, Donna artfully captures the seashore experience. Donna has observed the masters and studied with the best but acknowledges that growing up with images created by her talented mother have been her greatest inspiration. One that she has passed along to her own daughters. A love of the coast translates freely through her color washed interpretations of children enjoying summer, fish leaping from azure waters, pets in play, and cottages styled by memories of a gentle era. Donna's art is commissioned and collected by presidents and international corporations. However, it is the individual whose selection makes its way home to remind its owner of warmer, calmer days that Donna considers her most valuable collector. Donna has been a part of the Sandestin Wine Festival from the beginning, and her festival event posters have become annual collector's items. Donna will be featured with exclusive art work during both Friday and Saturday Grand Tastings.
